

Mike Farmer

SeaCoast Gas Transmission operates a 25-mile pipeline system with extensive access to diverse natural gas supply sources which can deliver 100,000 MMBtus per day of natural gas to northeast Florida. SeaCoast Gas Transmission provides: access to diverse supply sources via Florida Gas Transmission and Southern Natural Pipeline systems, service from the Jacksonville area to JEA's Greenland Energy Center, firm and Interruptible Transportation Service to the Florida market, knowledgeable originators and professional operations technicians who are customer-focused.