The Florida Energy Pipeline Association (FEPA) has established a Scholarship Fund. The Fund has been established to offer assistance to academically qualified students to continue pursuing a degree at a two or four year accredited university, college, or technical school. Scholarships will be based on such criteria as academic achievement, financial need, extra-curricular activities, community involvement, career goals, moral character, etc. The Fund has been established by the direct efforts of the FEPA Scholarship Committee and monies raised from FEPA activities and individual member contributions. The FEPA Scholarship Committee will be comprised of the current members of the FEPA Board of Directors' Executive Committee.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION:

- Two scholarships (one High School Student and one College Student) will be awarded in the amount of $2500.00.
- All award checks will be written payable jointly to the scholarship recipient and the educational institution they attend and will require the endorsement of both parties.
- Awards will be distributed at the discretion of Florida Energy Pipeline Association.
- The amount to be awarded will be determined annually based on funds available.
- Recipients will be notified on or around July 1, 2018.

ELIGIBILITY (VERY IMPORTANT, PLEASE READ)

To be considered for the FEPA Scholarship, the applicant:

- Must be a Major or Associate Pipeline Member (as defined in FEPA's Amended and Restated Bylaws) full-time employee who has been continuously employed for at least one year with that Member. The Member must be located within the state of Florida and must be in good standing with FEPA. Also, the employee must reside within the state of Florida, or;
- Must be a dependent child or grandchild of a Major or Associate Pipeline Member (as defined in FEPA's Amended and Restated Bylaws) full-time employee who has been continuously employed for at least one year with that Member. The Member must be located within the state of Florida and must be in good standing with FEPA. Also, the employee and dependent child or grandchild must reside within the state of Florida to be eligible;
- Must be a current student in good standing, in accordance with current institutional policies, with a grade point average of 3.0, or higher (only applicable if applicant is currently enrolled in a college, university, or trade school).
- Must intend to and eventually enroll in an accredited university, college, or trade school as a full-time student (12 or more credit hours per semester).
- Must complete pages 3-6 of the FEPA Scholarship application and submit prior to June 1, 2018.

PLEASE NOTE: Completed applications submitted to FEPA by the June 1, 2018 deadline will be given every consideration by the FEPA Scholarship Committee, but please be advised that submitting an application does not automatically guarantee you will receive a scholarship. FEPA reserves the right to determine scholarship recipients, based on the criteria outlined above.
